

Cornwall Inter County Masters Team Championships

Millfield pool 12th November 2023

A team of 27 swimmers, 2 officials and team manager travelled to Millfield school to represent Cornwall at the National intercounty competition.

Despite some gaps in certain age groups we had swimmers competing in 70/72 of the events and swam every relay.

Clubs represented were:

Camelford Stingers; David McGorin

Caradon; Amanda Holland, Claire Jones, Helen Roseman, Samantha Day, Sheryl Taylor, Toby Whitley and Thomas Greet

Carrick masters; Alan Dodd, Cags Gilbert, Charlie Varker, Finn Wightman, Fran Baker, Graeme Milne, Jeremy Salmon, Julie Drage, Karen Geisler, Lucy Harwood, Peter Stephens, Sarah Quartermaine, Steven Carter, Tom Parker

Newquay Cormorants; Emily Harbisher, Marcus Smallbone, Natalie Harbisher

North Cornwall Dragons; Kevin Instance

TCSC; Matt Leigh

Carrick masters members Dan Corbett and Adrian Dupuy accompanied the team as officials and Cathy Ralph Head coach at Carrick masters was team manager

The SW region is always a tough region (Devon overall winners in 2022) but the team came 5th out of 6 scoring 1326 points only a few points behind 4th place Somerset 1377. Devon 1700, Gloucestershire 1657, Wiltshire 1443, Dorset 1001.

The competition Nationally this year was fast with Cornwall masters coming Nationally 23rd out of 29 counties.

Full results ranked Nationally can be seen following this link

Massive Well Done to all of you who swam for Cornwall
